NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
The Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries at a meeting held in Richmond, Virginia, on October 16, 1981, adopted the following amendment to regulation pursuant to Sections 29-125, 29-126 and 29-127 of the Code of Virginia, to become effective January 1, 1982.

Chapter 23. Fishing Generally

R23-3. Except as provided in this regulation and in R24-5.1, R24-10.1, R24-10.2, and R24-10.8, there shall be no size limit on any species of fish. There shall, however, be a twenty-six inch minimum size limit on muskellunge, a twenty-inch minimum size limit on northern pike and a twenty-inch minimum size limit on landlocked striped bass (rockfish). Also, there shall be a twelve-inch minimum size limit on largemouth, smallmouth and spotted bass in the North Fork of Pound Reservoir and in the Roanoke (Staunton) and Dan Rivers and their tributaries downstream from Niagara Dam on the Roanoke River and the Brantly Steam Plant Dam on the Dan River and the North Fork Shenandoah River downstream from Route 42 bridge at Timberville & the Shenandoah River from the mouth of the North Fork downstream to the West Virginia boundary line and the New River from Claytor Dam to the West Virginia boundary line, and in the North Anna, Chickahominy, Claytor, Philpott and Flannagan reservoir in Loudoun County, and in Lake Moomaw (Gathright Project) and in the waters of Fort A. P. Hill, and in the waters of Quantico Marine Reservation. It shall be unlawful to have any largemouth smallmouth or spotted bass less than twelve inches in length in one's possession while on any of the waters mentioned in the preceeding sentence. It shall be unlawful to have any largemouth, smallmouth or spotted bass from twelve to fifteen inches in length, both inclusive, in one's possession on Gaston Reservoir. It shall be unlawful to have any smallmouth, largemouth or spotted bass from eleven to thirteen inches in length, both inclusive, in one's possession on the South Fork Shenandoah River from the Luray Power Dam near Luray downstream to its confluence with the North Fork Shenandoah River at Riverton.

VIRGINIA:
In the Circuit Court of Appomattox County
Virginia Electric and Power Company, a Virginia Corporation, Petitioner, v.
John LeGrande Baker, Et Al, and 0.528 Acre, More or Less, of Land, Located in Appomattox County, Virginia, Defendants.

NOTICE BY PUBLICATION
LAW NO. 2117.
To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to an Order entered on the 11th day of December, 1981, this Notice is hereby given:

In this proceeding the Petitioner seeks to acquire by condemnation certain perpetual rights, privileges and easement of right of way over, under, upon and across a certain piece or parcel of land situated in Appomattox County, Virginia, for the uses and purposes of the Petitioner in the laying, construction, operation and maintenance of electric transmission and distribution facilities consisting of one or more lines of poles, towers, structures, cables, conduits and pipes, together with all wires, manholes, handholes, attachments, equipment, accessories and appurtenances desirable in connection therewith, all of which are described more particularly in the Petition and by the exhibit attached thereto on file in the Office of the Clerk of this Court, to which reference is hereby made for a full and accurate description thereof; and for the appointment of commissioners to ascertain just compensation to the Owners of any estate or interest in the property to be taken or affected as a result of the taking and use there of by the Petitioner.

For such purposes, the Petitioner will apply to this Court, sitting at Appomattox, Virginia, on the 23rd day of February, 1982, at 10 o'clock a.m., or as soon thereafter as Petitioner may be heard, for the appointment of commissioners to ascertain just compensation as aforesaid.

An affidavit by Affidavit filed according to law that the following Owners are not residents of the State Of Virginia: Charles Edward Henderson, Charlotte P. Henderson and Maggie Bell.

IT IS ORDERED that the aforesaid Owners do appear within ten (10) days after due publication of this Order in the Clerk's Office of this Court and do what is necessary to protect their interests.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if any of the above named Owners desire to assert any objection or defense to the taking or damaging of their property or to the jurisdiction of the Court to hear the case and to proceed with the appointment of commissioners, they shall file their answer and grounds of defense designating the property in which they claim to be interested, the grounds of any objection or defense to the taking or damaging of their property or to the jurisdiction of the Court to hear the case and to proceed with the appointment of commissioners for the determination of just compensation.

Should any such Owners fail to file their answer and grounds of defense as hereinabove provided, such failure shall not preclude the Owners from appearing on the date set for the appointment of commissioners nor from presenting evidence as to valuation and damage nor from sharing in the award of just compensation according to their interest therein or otherwise protecting their rights, but such failure shall preclude such Owners from any other defense by way of pleas in bar, or otherwise.

Hollywood News

By MARY BAGBY

To the Editor of the Times-Virginian and his staff all of its readers. May the love and peace which is Christmas abide with you throughout the new year.

By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. (John 13:35).

Everyone enjoyed the fine Christmas program "Christmas around the World" at Hollywood Church Sunday night, Dec. 13. The fellowship hour afterward was nice. Thanks to both the program and refreshment committees and to all the children and to all those who helped make it a lovely evening.

We wish to extend our sympathy to the family of Mr. T. R. Deaner of Vera who recently passed away.

We wish to extend our sympathy to the family of Mr. T. J. Harvey of Richmond who died recently.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Ruth Caldwell Lewis who passed away last week.
